One of the missions of the Bilinski Educational Foundation is to support students who have financial need. The Bilinski Selection committee must therefore weigh the academic merit of each application against the financial need of the applicant. In your own words, please explain how you qualify for the Bilinski Fellowship/Award in terms of financial need. Include any factors that you think are relevant, including (but not limited to): current salary, total household income, current rent and living costs, total accumulated debt, cost of supporting dependents, etc.
